- b) The Documentary, commissioned by the Town Council, was based entirely on recordings of local residents' experience of poverty.
- c) Councillor Steve Cooper commented that the film was an excellent demonstration that poverty is a huge problem not easy to address and while there were real positives in people helping people we need to engage in the political arena as that is where power lies.
- d) Councillor Brian Lucas said it was a shock to hear the impact of poverty on real lives; people should not have to swallow their pride and should have enough money not to have to do that.
- e) Councillor John Watkins' response was to say he was furious that citizens are in avoidable pain; a country as rich as ours should not be putting people through this.
- f) Councillor Phil Warren thanked the film makers for the film adding that it was good to see the strength of community responses and that we need to use the film widely.
- g) Councillor James Toogood commented that it is dreadful for parents that are unable to provide for their children and this film needs to be circulated widely.
- h) Councillor Jefferies also thanked the film makers as such shocking experiences should not be happening, adding that he had seen people slipping below the poverty line in his own area of the town.
- i) Councillor Dave Logan said that he sees this in his daily work and that although the community has been brilliant it cannot be enough; the long-standing contract that if you get a job you'll have enough to live on is broken and no longer works.
- j) Councillor Stephen Cockett welcomed the unique and timely film saying that he agreed with everything he had heard and that the film needs to be seen widely.

- k) Councillor Julie Hutchison said she found it heart-breaking that people are in these situations.
 - l) County Councillor Rodney Downer suggested it could be shown in schools.
